

Hands Up Education summer conference 2022

11th June, Museum of London

	Option A	Option B	Option C	Option D
10.00–10.25 am	Registration
10.25–10.40 am	Welcome talk
10.40–11.30 am Session 1	Introduction to Suburani	Broadening the attainment range: teaching Latin to all	Developing GCSE Classical Civilization	Introduction to the Primary Latin Course
11.30–11.50 am	Break with refreshments
11.50 am–12.40 pm Session 2	Digital Suburani	Ideas for language teaching at KS3 and KS4	Classical Greek in schools - ideas and proposals	New developments at the Museum of London
12.40–1.30 pm	Lunch
1.30–2.15 pm Session 3	Best practice for teaching GCSE literature	Integrating myth and history into a Latin course	Next steps with the Primary Latin Course	Object handling session with Museum of London
2.15–3 pm Session 4	Suburani Book 3 - approaches to reading literature	Mind the Gap - identifying and addressing individual students' needs	Using Latin novellas in the classroom	Object handling session with Museum of London
3–3.10 pm	Break with refreshments
3.10–4 pm	Plenary: Everyday life in the City of Rome			