

Let's go to the baths!

- First fill in the Latin or English words that are missing to label the rooms
- Then, starting at the star, draw the route a Roman might have taken through the baths. You can add a short description or drawing of what might have happened in each room.

