

Exercise 2: Adapt the text

Use the story Forum Rōmānum to help you translate the following sentences into Latin.

1. The Forum Boarium is noisy. (Use the title of the previous story for help.)

.....

2. Faustus walks with an enslaved man to the hall.

.....

3. I hurry with a large enslaved man to the hall.

.....

4. The senator has my money.

.....

5. Do you have a daughter?

.....

6. I always hand over the money.

.....

7. The large slave sees Lucio.

.....

8. I do not have the money, but I do have a daughter.

.....

9. The enslaved woman does not have money.

.....

10. Terrified Faustus sees the senator.

.....

Exercise 2: Adapt the text (answers)

Use the story Forum Rōmānum to help you translate the following sentences into Latin.

1. The Forum Boarium is noisy. (Use the title of the previous story for help.)

Forum Boārium est clamosum.

2. Faustus walks with an enslaved man to the hall.

Faustus cum servō ad basilicam ambulat.

3. I hurry with a large enslaved man to the hall.

(ego) cum magnō servō ad basilicam festinō.

4. The senator has my money.

senātor pecūniam meam habet.

5. Do you have a daughter?

(tū) filiam habēs?

6. I always hand over the money.

(ego) pecūniam semper trādō.

7. The large slave sees Lucio.

magnus servus Lūcriōnem videt.

8. I do not have the money, but I do have a daughter.

(ego) pecūniam nōn habeō, sed (ego) filiam habeō.

9. The enslaved woman does not have money

ancilla pecūniam nōn habet.

10. Terrified Faustus sees the senator.

Faustus perterritus senātōrem videt.